

Notice of Intention of Enrollment in a Home Education Program

Date:

To: The Superintendent of the School District of Philadelphia

Re: Notice of Intention as per Section 2103

From:

I hereby file this notice, in accordance with Section 2103, of my intention to enroll the following student(s) in a home education program under section 1327.1, once they reach compulsory school age as defined in section 1326. The student(s) are currently under compulsory school age as defined in section 1326.

Student name(s):

Sincerely,

References:

24 PS 13- 1326 Definitions

The term "compulsory school age," as hereinafter used, shall mean the period of a child's life from the time the child's parents elect to have the child enter school, which shall be not later than at the age of eight (8) years, until the age of seventeen (17) years. The term shall not include any child who holds a certificate of graduation from a regularly accredited senior high school.

Section 2103 Board of public education; additional duties.

--The duties of the board of public education in districts of the first class, in addition to the duties prescribed in this act, shall be-- ...

(8) Provided, that notwithstanding the provisions of section 1326, the governing authority of the school district may establish the compulsory school age at no earlier than age six. The provisions of section 1326 shall continue to apply to any student enrolled in a program under section 1327.1 or to any student whose parent or guardian files a notice with the superintendent of the school district of the intention to enroll the student in a program under section 1327.1